

MAYO INCREASES CONCESSIONS ON PAPAGO

February 15, 2008

Mayo Gold Explorations Ltd. has received the Cucurpe 5 concession title. As a result of this grant, the total size of the Papago property has almost doubled to a total size of 26,820 hectares.

"The additional concession granted to Mayo at the Papago Property substantially increase our exploration holdings in a prospective area," said Pedro Villagran Garcia, President and Chief Executive Officer of Mayo Gold. "These new concession greatly enhance the size of our existing Mexican property: Papago, surrounding the Papago project, and in the heart of the prolific Mohave Shear "

Mayo Gold is a Vancouver-based mining exploration company committed to deliver value to its shareholder by acquiring, developing and mining precious metals deposits in Mexico.
